Description:

Keith Fenwick's friendly and approachable style, combined with the unique pull-out tracings in the book, makes painting water in the landscape simple. A varied mix of projects covers everything from Winter scenes to sheep-dotted river valleys.

I love these books! I have bought five of them. I love the large sketches for transfer to paper! The step by step process is great for the beginner as well as the person who doesn't draw well and likes to transfer images. Each book contains 6 sketches and five step by step instructions. With Prime membership I saved a lot of money.
